Verse

From the moment that I rise, I got blue skies
Chasing down those storm clouds in my way
There's a joy uncompromised over my life
And everything starts with me giving thanks
The overflow of a grateful soul
Unlocks the doors and lets praises roar

Pre-chorus

But I can't help but thank You, Lord
For every blessing You pour over me
Over me Oh yeah, yeah, yeah
I can't help but dancing like a fool
Because of how You set me free
Can't help but sing

Chorus

Agradecido, agradecido
Agradecido, You have been so good to me
Agradecido, agradecido
Agradecido You have been so good to me

Verse

It's a free fall into grace, everyday
As I let go of my anxious mind
Oh, You change my point of view to see You
Raining down Your favor on my life
The overflow of a grateful soul
Unlocks the doors and lets praises roar
