Another one is on the way

BRIDGE
               F
If He told the sun
        G
When to rise
       Am
And it did
        C
He will again
                   F
And if He told the storm
      G
To be still
       Am
And it did
        C
He will again
                   F
And if He told the sea
         G
Where to split
       Am
And it did
        C
He will again
                   F
And if He told the walls
        G
When to fall
         Am
And they did
        C
He will again
                   F
And if He told the chains
        G
When to break
         Am
And they did
        C
He will again
                   F
And if He told the bones
     G
Come alive
         Am

```
And they did
        C
He will again
                    F
And if He told the stone
     G
Roll away
       Am
And it did
        C
He will again
                    F
And if He told the grave
        G
Let him go
       Am
And it did
        C
He will again
    F         G         Am     C
And again and again and again
    F         G         Am
And again and again and again
      C              G
Cause another one is on the way

REPEAT CHORUS

BRIDGE 2
                    F
And if He told the chains
        G
When to break
         Am
And they did
        C
He will again
                    F
And if He told the bones
     G
Come alive
         Am
And they did
        C
He will again
                    F
And if He told the stone
     G
Roll away
       Am
And it did
        C
He will again
                    F
And if He told the grave
        G
Let him go
       Am
And it did
        C
He will again
    F         G         Am     C
```

And again and again and again
    F   G   Am
And again and again and again
      C   G
Cause another one is on the way
