Intro

Verse 1

When the days are dark and filled with thunder
And light'ning strikes in the same place twice
When my soul is weak and thirsts for water
I will call upon Your name oh God

Chorus

My rock my help in of need
A mighty strong deliverer
A fortress for the contrite heart
I will call upon Your name oh God

Verse 2

Then mercy flows from heavens fountain
And shackles fall like autumn leaves
And Your righteousness shines like the morning
You're the God who ransoms and redeems
