Verse 1

Just to know You more, so many s I've prayed this prayer before
And then right on cue, another valley that I must walk through
I wanna cry out Let this pass from me
But there's so much I'd miss 'cause now I see

Chorus

Hurting is a chance to find You as a healer
Lonely is a chance to fall into Your love
Broken is a chance to know You as Redeemer
Empty is a chance to find that You're enough
I'm learning every hard that's in store
Is just another chance, a chance to know You more

Won't give in to fear
Even when Your ways are far from clear

I'll embrace the place You have me now
In every heartache that I'm called to face
You help me find a greater depth of grace

[Chorus]

Each day, and the trials they can make a way
For me to know Your heart
And a little more of Who You are
