In the beginning

We walked in the garden
            C#m

We were fully alive

The joy of the garden

Was now out of reach
                   E    E
But You chose to pursue us

No one could deny
               E    E
We build You a temple

Our God dwelt among us

You gave us Your best

You offered communion
