Intro

F Bb F F Bb F [half feel]

Verse 1

F
I pulled the car off to the side
Bb F F Bb F
And walked along a starry hill in Idaho
F
A golden moon was rolling by
Bb F F Bb F
The ridge was like windowsill and I don't know
Dm Bb
If I was on the outside looking in
Dm Bb
Like maybe all the borders of the world were getting thin
C
And I could see the sky the way it's gonna be again

Chorus 1

Dm Bb
Every star is a burning flame
Dm Bb
Every star is a burning flame

Interlude 1

F F [regular feel]

Verse 2

F
Well, yesterday I trimmed the vines
Bb F F Bb F
And spread the leaves along the ground in Tennessee
F
And I tried to hold it in my mind
Bb F
That all the light that's coming down
F Bb F Dm Bb
Takes ages to get to me and I was on the inside looking out
Dm Bb
I was lifted by a solar wind up over the clouds
C
And I could hear the hosts of heaven singing out loud

[Chorus 1]

Interlude 2

F Bb F Bb F
F Bb F F Bb F F Bb F

Verse 3

F
I remember Mr. Greene and I

Were walking down a busy street in Louisville
The sign said Merton looked around and all the people passing by
Were shining like the sun, beautiful
And the wonder of it caught him by surprise
Oh Lord, I want to see the world with those eyes
I want to look into the night and see a million suns
Rise, rise

Bridge

All that heat comes running at the speed of light
From the reaches of space to these faces tonight

Chorus 2

Every heart is a burning flame
Every heart is a burning flame
