Intro

Verse 1

Whisper my name so only I can hear
Call to my heart, chase away my fears
Stand up in this place, to fight for the one You love
Won't You come surround me so I can rise above

Chorus

Explode my soul, let these walls come down
All these prison thoughts, they crumble with the sound
Of my deliverance from my enemies
I stand up beside You, let's watch these giants flee

Verse 2

Let silence be broken, and the winter be done
Will you come out of your hiding, kiss me sweet warm sun
Let the wind of Your Spirit, blow the dust off my feet
I ran to You broken, but now I am complete

[Chorus]

Bridge

Hello promised land, we've waited for so long
To see what we've believed in
To sing this promised land song
Explode my soul, explode with praise
What He promised is what He gave
Explode my soul, explode with praise
What He promised is what He gave
