                        B B                          B     B
There is a day coming,     when the old will pass a - way
                        G#m                         E
Ev'ry wrong will be made right, no darkness, no night
                        B     B
The sun will light the way

Verse 2
                        B B                        B         B
There is a king coming,     the one who conquered death and grave
                        G#m                         E
No more pain and no more sorrow, this hope for to - morrow
                    B     B
Is our hope for to - day

Pre-Chorus
