Verse

The deepest of seas and furthest horizons
Can't even begin to speak of Your kindness
While I ran so far in rebellion
Still You gave Your life without question

Before I even said I'm sorry
You made a way for me

Chorus

How deep is the love
How high is the One
Who forgives and forgets all our sin
How great is Your grace
I'll never forget all You've done
Oh, how deep is Your love

The darkest of days slip right out of focus
No valley out dives Your depths of devotion
You lay me down in green pastures
So I'll rest beside Your still waters
