Intro

A B C#m B

Verse 1

E
It came upon the midnight clear
A E
That glorious song of old

From angels bending near the earth
A B E
To touch their harps of gold
G#m G# C#m
Peace on the earth, goodwill to men
F#m B
From heaven's all-gracious King
E
The world in solemn stillness lay
E B E
To hear the angels sing

Verse 2

E
Yet with the woes of sin and strife
A E
The world has suffered long
E
Beneath the angel strain have rolled
A E
Two thousand years of wrong
G#m G# C#m
And man, at war with man, hears not
B B
The love song which they bring
E B A
O hush the noise, ye men of strife
E B E
And hear the angels sing

Instrumental

A B C#m B

Verse 3

E
And ye, beneath life's crushing load
A E

Whose forms are bending low

Who toil along the climbing way

A B C#m

With painful steps and slow

G#m G# A

Look now for glad and golden hours

B B

Come swiftly on the wing

E

O rest beside the weary road

A B A

And hear the angels sing

Instrumental

A B C#m B

Verse 4

E

For lo, the days are hastening on

A E

By prophet bards foretold

When with the ever-circling years

A B E

Shall come the age of gold

G#m G# C#m

When peace shall over all the earth

F#m B

Its ancient splendors fling

E

And all the world give back the song

E B C#m

Which now the angels sing
