Intro
C    G    D

Verse 1
C                      G                D
There are a million truths for every lie
C                      G              D
So speak it out loud and let it lift high
C                      G          D
There are a million reasons to cover your eyes
                  C                      G          D
But the light is shining through the darkness we hide
                  C                  G          D
The light is shining through the darkness we hide

Chorus
C              C          G  D
So come let it, come let it
D                     G    C
Come let it, come let it shine

Verse 2
C                      G                D
There's only one way to wash yourself clean
C                  G            D
So let the dirt fall and get on your knees
C                  G          D
There are a million scars for every mistake
                C                  G              D
But we are not chained to the secrets that we've made
                C                  G              D
No we are not chained to the secrets that we've made

[Chorus]
