Intro

C

Verse 1

C F C F
I abandon my addiction to the certainty of life
Am C /E G
And my need to know everything
C F C F
This illusion cannot speak, it cannot walk with me at night
Am C /E G
As I taste life's fragility

Chorus

[ , as d]
C /E F F C /E F F
I am looking for a Savior, I can see and know and touch
C /E F Am
One who dwells within the midst of us
C /E F F C /E F F
May a broken God be known in the earth beneath our feet
Dm Am C
May our souls behold humility
F Am C
May our souls behold humility

Verse 2

C F
When our plans become the casualties
C F
Of getting through the day
Am C /E G
And we begin to know our weakness
C F C F
And denial isn't strong enough to hold our fears at bay
Am C /E G
And we can't escape our emptiness

[Chorus]

Verse 3

C F
I see the sympathy of Heaven
C F
In the earth and wind and trees
Am C /E G
I see hope within the rising sun
F
And it's setting

Interlude

C /E G Am F

Bridge

[freely]

C /E    G    Am    F        C /E    G    Am    F

I am searching for meaning, I am looking for healing

C /E    G    Am    F

I am haunted by Your reflection

C    G    G    Am    F

I was blinded by my addictions

C /E    G    Am    F        C /E    G    Am    F

I am torn apart by the dying, I am giving up on escaping

C /E    G    C /E    F

Will I learn to live without taking?

C /E    G    Am    F

Will I begin to see beauty in the making?

Verse 4

C /E                    F                    C /E                    F

I can't pretend to know the beginning from the end

C /E                    F                    Am

But there's beauty in the life that's given

C /E                    F                    C /E                    F

We may bless or we may curse every twist and every turn

C /E                    F                    Am

Will we learn to know the joy of living?

Gb/Bb                    B                    Ebm                    [ out]

Will we learn to know the joy of living?
