Intro

pad G
G G G G

Verse

          G                                  C
Your love is like radiant diamonds
                  G                                  D
Bursting inside us we cannot contain
          Em                                  C
Your love will surely come find us
                  G          D                  G
Like blazing wild fires singing Your name

Chorus

          G                                  C
God of mercy sweet love of mine
                  G                                  D
I have surrendered to Your design
          Em                                  C
May this offering stretch across the skies
                  G          D                  G  D
And these Hallelujahs be multiplied
