Verse 1

Lord I wish I could praise You with adequate words
But You leave me speechless.
And I so long to sing You the song You deserve,
But it would be endless.
I long to move Your heart.
I bring You something new
I tell how great You are 'till my praise to You

Chorus

Is like an ocean breeze blowing on Your face,
Like a summer sun with its warm embrace,
Like a gentle rain plays a symphony.
That's what I want my praise to be.
Like a fragrant rose in the early spring,
Like an eagle soars when it spreads its wings,
Whatever Lord You may need from me,
That's what I want my praise to be to You

Verse 2

Ev'rything I could give, You already possess,
Lord I'm so unworthy,
I'm just one of the millions to stand and confess,
And yet still You hear me.
Your heart is open wide, You long for what I bring
I pray somehow You'll find this simple offering

Bridge

Lord I want my praise to be
Like the breeze, the sun, the spring.

Lord I want my praise to be

D/F#

E

Like the eagle spreads its wings.
