Verse

This is a song for the valleys, for the harder days
Something to remind me when I've lost my way
And even though it's dark right now, I know morning comes
'Cause You're the God of the promise, and what You say is done

Pre-chorus

And in the battle when I'm surrounded
Still my soul will hold to all You've said

Chorus

You're my refuge and strength, my yes and a-men
Put my trust in Your name, 'cause You've never failed me yet
You're the breaker of chains, defeated the grave
All my hope in Your name, 'cause You've never failed me yet

Verse

This is a prayer for the desert, when the road seems long
Waiting for the promise that is yet to come
And even in the wilderness You will lead me home
Jesus, You are with me, You're my only hope

Pre-chorus

And in my failure, and through my weakness
Still my soul will hold to all You've said

Chorus

Bridge

G# D# /G Cm A#
If You're not in it, I don't want it, if You said it, I believe it
G# D# /G Cm A# G#
Where You call me, I will follow, 'cause You've never failed me yet
