C G7sus4 C G7sus4
Henry loves the ballpark, but lately he ain't coming round
C G7sus4 C G7sus4
Things have been so different since his youngest boy left town

Interlude

C G7sus4 C G7sus4

Verse 2

C G7sus4 C G7sus4
The fighting seemed so harmless, families some disagree
C G7sus4 C G7sus4 Am7
It's hard to know the reason, why he finally chose to leave

Pre-chorus 1

Dm7 F Gsus4
But he's gone away, and his father waits

Chorus 1

C/E F C/E
And he is watching and he is hoping
Dm7 Gsus4
Though his eyes are weary, his arms are still open
C/E F C/E Am7 Dm7 G
And his prayer, so softly spoke - en, please come home

[Interlude]

Verse 3

C G7sus4 C G7sus4
Now Henry sits and wonders in that front porch rocking chair
C G7sus4 C G7sus4 Am7
Does his boy remember all the love the family shared

Pre-chorus 2

Dm7 F Gsus4
And is he cold, out there alone

[Chorus 1]

Bridge

F C/E Dm7
To your seat at the table, to your father who weeps
Gsus4 G
Every night in sleepless dreams
C/E F C/E
He longs to see his face in younger skin
Am7 G F2
Running down the driveway again

Chorus 2

And he is watching and he is hoping
Though his eyes are weary, his arms are still open
And his prayer, so softly spoken
Please come home
