Verse

Oh how great a mercy that knows no end
Rises up every morning filling my heart again
Oh how sweet a redemption making wrong things right
Just as it never happened no such thing as lost time

Chorus

Oh You make all things new, yeah that's just what You do
My redeemer, my redeemer
You'll finish what You start 'cause that's just who You are
My redeemer, my redeemer

Trading beauty for ashes I'll never be the same
Now I'm dancing on sorrow turn my night into praise
What a resurrection, what was dead is alive
What a gift You have given so amazing so kind
