Verse 1

In the morning when I wake
I'm confronted with Your grace
All the pieces of my heart
They line up like the dawn against the dark

Interlude

Verse 2

There's still music in the pain
There's still beauty in all You've made
In the stillness of this place
We are standing here together face to face

Chorus

You say rise, You say rise
You draw me from the ashes of the night
So I rise, yes I rise
To live inside the heart that beats with mine

[Interlude]

Verse 3

Let surrender be my song
When I've been running for so long
And no battle from where I've been
Could tear me from the arms that pull me in

[Chorus]

Bridge

Oh, You hold my heart

Through every night, through every night
Hold me ever close
Never let me go, never let me go
