Intro
Bm   Em/G      D    Bm   Em/G      D

Verse
         Bm    G             D
I'm a stranger in a foreign land
           Bm     G#m            D/F# A
Passing through, when will I be home again
      Bm        G                D  A
You remind me, nothing here is permanent
          G              Bm   A
But Your word and Your faithfulness

Pre-chorus
       G  Bm        A  F#m
I was hungry,   I was thirsty
       G  Bm           A
I was weary,   You let me in

Chorus
      Bm            G       D             A A
When love became a refugee, He became my refuge
      Bm             G      D           A
When love became a prisoner, He set me free
     D/F#         G       A                    Bm
The widow and the orphan became the bride and children
        D/F#     G        A         Bm
When He stole my heart between two thieves
            D/F#   G         A         D
That's when love became the least of these

 Intro

Verse
      Bm             G         D
I'm a beggar on the pilgrim's road
         Bm           G           D/F#     A
Chasing echoes of a voice I hear among the poor
        Bm      G             D
I'm a stranger in a foreign land
        G               Bm
Oh the memories of the love
                A             A
That calls the broken things to mend

 Chorus
```

Interlude
G A D/F#

Bridge
G Bm A
I was hungry, I was thirsty
D/F# G Bm A D/F#
I was weary, You let me in
G Bm A D/F#
Where You're hungry, where You're thirsty
G Bm A
Wherever You're weary, I will let You in

Chorus
