Intro

G

Verse

I've been running down this road
Don't even know where I'm going half the time
I've been hiding in my phone
I have been missing all the moments and trying to find

Pre-chorus

I've been pushing back regret
I've been lost inside my head
I've been wandering around like a ghost

Chorus

But I wanna hold on to the right things
And let go of the rest
'Cause time's worth more than money
And I'm done buying what won't last
'Cause the years are just a vapor
And this life is just a breath
I wanna hold on to the right things
And let go of the rest

Interlude

I've been wearing myself out
Trying to get this off the ground on my own

Feeling that something's gotta change
