Intro

Gmaj7 Asus Bm7 Bm7

Verse 1

When it doesn't go my way, I know that it is not the end
I'm trusting You have better plans, I haven't even dreamt of yet
I know that You are for me, when everything's against me
I put all my hope in You

Chorus

Jesus I will trust You, I will trust You, I know You never fail
I will trust You, Jesus I will, Jesus I will

Verse 2

I don't know how the story ends, but I know that You finished it
I'll close my eyes and just let go and fall into my only Hope
There's safety in the falling when I surrender fully
I put all my hope in You

[Chorus]

Bridge

The only thing I know is God You're in control
In every little detail, You are close
I'll never be alone here in the unknown
The power of Your Presence fills my soul
Now everything I know is God You're in control
In every little detail, You are close
I'll never be alone here in the unknown
The power of Your Presence fills my soul

[Chorus]

[Chorus]

Ending
